BIO

A veteran of the United States Marine Corps, Frederick Falk has been practicing and performing his unique brand of magic & mentalism for over 20 years. Based in Los Angeles where he frequently performs as a magician member of the world-famous Hollywood Magic Castle, his masterful skills and wide array of vintage-inspired outfits make him a wonderful addition from the most elegant of affairs to the largest stages. Frederick specializes in creating shows that mix astonishing magic with engaging narratives. He has performed in theaters, nightclubs, restaurants, universities, public conferences, and corporate events all across America and internationally.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Featured on Penn & Teller's hit series "Fool Us!" on the CW network.

Portrayed the famous conjuror William Robinson aka Chung Ling Soo for Todd Robbins' "True Nightmares" series on Investigation Discovery.

Monthly residency at Diehl Marcus & Co. in Hollywood where he performs his successful one-man show "Time Unwinding."

Resident stage magician at San Manuel Casino.

PRAISE

"Frederick Falk did a great job on the show! Thanks for being easy to work with!"

-Mike Close, Consultant for 'Penn & Teller: Fool Us'

"Frederick Falk is the magician's gentleman and the gentleman of magicians. His talent is only exceeded by his grace and professionalism. I was lucky to have him in my last 3 magic productions. Anyone would benefit by having Frederick be a part of their project. I am lucky to know him as a friend and a fellow conjuror." -Micah Cover, Magic Castle Magician
